

NORTH CAROLINA SYMPHONY

Founded in 1932 and subsequently the first state-supported symphony in the country, the North Carolina Symphony is a vital and honored component of North Carolina's cultural life. Its 175 performances annually are greeted with enthusiasm throughout the state, in communities large and small, in concert halls, auditoriums, gymnasiums and outdoor settings. Under the artistic leadership of Music Director Grant Llewellyn, the orchestra has grown in stature and sophistication, now advancing a well-earned reputation for innovative programming and collaborative projects.

The North Carolina Symphony performs their New Bern Series as well as a Holiday POPS Concert at the New Bern Riverfront Convention Center each year. Upcoming performance dates and ticket information are listed below. Tickets can be purchased at the New Bern Riverfront Convention Center or by calling (800) 434-5767.
